ABOUT ART:DIS

ART:DIS (Singapore) Ltd, formerly known as Very Special Arts Singapore, is a leading non-profit organisation dedicated to creating learning and livelihood opportunities for persons with disabilities (PWDs) in the arts.

Started in 1993 by Ambassador-at-Large, Professor Tommy Koh, ART:DIS organises art programmes, projects, collaborations, exhibitions and performances for PWDs to reach for excellence and be relevant in the future. Our established pathways in the arts enables, empowers and engages PWDs to express themselves, gain confidence and be part of a community that is rewarding

In FY21/22, ART:DIS supported 454 students/artists across 19 programmes, organised 48 exhibitions, performances and projects, and reached over 196,740 individuals.

ABOUT CHARITY GOLF

This fundraising event by ART:DIS makes a return after a two-year hiatus! With the goal of raising $300,000 for programme development and operations, golfers from all walks of life joined hands to help us double our impact.

On board for this event as well are generous sponsors for the Hole-In-One-Prizes (a Mercedes-Benz E200 AVANTGARDE and a Philip Stein watch), and our presenting sponsor NTT Ltd.

Together, we can realise the dreams of our beneficiaries to become independent artists!

CHAIRMAN'S MESSAGE

Hi Fellow Golfers,

The long wait is over! After a two year hiatus due to COVID restrictions, ART:DIS (formerly known as Very Special Arts Singapore) is pleased to host you to our Third Annual Golf Charity & Dinner at Tanah Merah Country Club (Tampines).

Be prepared for bruised egos from higher than your average scores at this beautiful championship course! Our target at this event is to raise $300k, surpassing our 2019 collections of $250k. And with your generous and enthusiastic support, we can and shall!

Have a great day on the greens, enjoy the performances by our artists at dinner, and support generously at the auction which features works by our artists.

PERFORMANCES FROM ART:DIS

DANCE EXTRAVAGANZA

In a fusion of East meets West meets Street, 14 students from ART:DIS will perform a unique synergy of dance genres.

Spearheaded by ART:DIS's Creative Dance trainer, Carissa Soh, the performance will showcase a unconventional encountering of Hip Hop, Chinese Ethnic Folk and Western Classical Ballet - all seamlessly infused into a unifying performance piece.

Performed entirely by a team of young and energetic dancers with intellectual and developmental disability, this performance promises to delight, impress, unite and is testament to the multitude of expressions in society.

STRAWBERRY STORY

Strawberry Story is a two-piece band by visually-impaired musician Ivni Yaakub and singer Wan Wai Yee. Together, they have been making music on streets, in ballrooms, at parties and on stage islandwide across Singapore. With Ivni on the guitar and Wai Yee on vocals, both are passionate about sharing their love of music, especially evergreen classics from the 70s such as Abba's Dancing Queen and The Beatles' Let It Be.

ARTISTS' PROFILE

About Joshua Tang

Joshua is a cheerful and friendly young man who works as an F&B Service Associate at Rasa Sentosa Resort. Art has always been a way for Joshua to share his emotions and thoughts. Often painting from memory or imagination, Joshua is especially proud when his artworks are appreciated by members of the public.

About Wesley Seah

Wesley was born sighted and enjoyed a thriving business as a head-hunter. Out of the blue, a rare condition of glaucoma struck and left him completely blind in one eye with limited vision in the other. Despite the abrupt challenges, Wesley maintains a positive outlook and is Head of Quality Assurance at Dialogue in the Dark. In 2015, he discovered Chinese Ink painting and found it a therapeutic medium to express his thoughts. Through hours of training, Wesley honed his style and is able to depict energy and movement through simple strokes.

About Eugene Soh

Eugene is a self-trained artist with a BA in Mathematics from the National University of Singapore. He was born able-bodied but an abnormal growth on his spine led to multiple surgeries. Although he was devastated by his inability to move freely, the support from his family encouraged him towards recovery. Today, Eugene enjoys painting as the process brings him solace. He is an impressionist artist whose works are highly sought after for their ethereal beauty.

AUCTION HIGHLIGHT

ART:DIS is proud to present a Live Batik Painting for auction! Created by Batik artist Kamal Dollah and ART:DIS artist Nicole Koo, they combined their expertise from different mediums to paint a one-of-a-kind artwork at Tanah Merah Country Club.

About Kamal Dollah

Kamal Dollah is an artist who specialises in batik painting and caricature drawings. He completed his Diploma in Graphic Design at Nanyang Academy of Fine Arts (Nafa) and Master of Arts degree in Contemporary Practice from the University of Huddersfield (UK). Kamal Arts Limited was established in 2014 for a more effective outreach in bringing art to the community.

In 2019, Kamal was a recipient of the Artisan of the Year award, conferred by The Rotary Club of Singapore for outstanding contribution to the arts and community. Kamal is also a record holder of three artistic feats in the Singapore Book of Records, and speaker at International Society for Education through Arts (UNESCO).

About Nicole Koo

Nicole Koo is an artist who specialises in watercolour painting. She holds a Diploma in Fine Arts from the Nanyang Academy of Fine Arts and since graduating, has built an impressive portfolio of over 100 artworks.

Her practice focuses largely on capturing the beauty of the natural world. Painting has helped Nicole create an oasis of calm energy where with each stroke, she is taken to a peaceful and quiet state of mind.

ARTISTS' PROFILE

About Christina Lau

Christina was a Prison Officer before a vehicular accident resulted in a major spinal cord injury, leaving her paralyzed from the chest down. Always one to see the glass half full, Christina did not give up on herself and discovered mouth painting. Initially apprehensive, she has since grown to enjoy the activity.

Besides being an artist Christina is also an award-winning table tennis player, representing Singapore at the recent 11th ASEAN Para Games and winning two bronze medals for the Woman's Single and Woman's Double competitions.

About Raymond Lau

Raymond belongs to a new generation of Singaporean artists who are at the forefront of the city-state's evolution into a Renaissance City. A colourful individual, he views painting as a therapeutic process that brings him peace and fulfilment.

Raymond received a Bachelor's in Fine Art from the University of Tasmania, and was honoured with the UOB Painting of the Year award in 1993 and the Young Artist Award in 2001. His body of realist and abstract works can be found in the collections of Ambassador-at-Large Professor Tommy Koh, Professor Arthur Lim, Mr Tan Swie Hian, Singapore Management University, United Overseas Bank and the National Arts Council.
